VENUE AND JURISDICTION

FILED DATE: 3/14/2023 6:05 PM 2022L010246

4. Jurisdiction is proper pursuant to 735 ILCS 5/2-209(a)(1), (a)(3), (a)(10), (b)(1)-(b)(4), and (c). Venue in Cook County is appropriate under 735 ILCS 5/2-101 as the transaction out of which the causes of action arose occurred in the City of Chicago, Cook County, Illinois.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL COUNTS

5. On or about September 17, 2021, Plaintiff and Defendant entered into a commercial lease, attached hereto as "Exhibit "A", hereinafter "the Lease", to lease a 13,000 square foot industrial unit located at certain real property commonly known as 4714A West Lake Street, Chicago, Illinois, hereinafter "the Property".

6. Said Lease was executed by Behmer as President of 30 Degree for the Tenant and Finke as owner of GP and for the Landlord. Mayle signed the Lease as a Guarantor as did Behmer, both in their respective individual capacity.

7. The term of the Lease was for a five-year period, beginning on October 1, 2021 and terminating on September 31 (sic), 2026.

8. The monthly payment was $7,150, whereupon Mayle tendered eighteen months of pre-paid rent ($128,700.00) as a condition precedent as well as a six-month security deposit in the amount of $42,900.00.

9. Pursuant to Paragraph 9B of said Lease, "Landlord shall maintain, repair or replace, with exception to Tenant caused damages, the exterior of the premises, including roof, exterior walls, and access to utility services, water, gas and electricity."

10. Furthermore, pursuant to Paragraph 29B of said Lease, "Landlord will present the Tenant with replacement lighting no later than November 1, 2021."

FILED DATE: 3/14/2023 6:05 PM 2022L010246

11. Since the execution of the Lease, the property has had several leaks in the roof, making the ability to work effectively and efficiently in the space impossible despite repeated requests to repair the roof. See Exhibit "B" attached hereto.

12. Excessive drainage and venting concerns have made the warehouse space flood during heavy rains making it impossible to use the space as intended. This issue has been repeatedly raised to the Landlord and it remains unresolved and unrepaired. See Exhibit "C" attached hereto.

13. Since November of 2021, Defendant has yet to replace the lighting or provide am alternative lighting plans despite numerous requests by Plaintiff to address the situation.

14. Since lease inception, the property is without heat or adequate plumbing facilities despite repeated requests to remedy the situation.

15. People's Gas refused to start gas service due to gas piping modifications made by Landlord, which caused inadequate supply to the main room heaters.

16. As a result of the lack of heat, the water pipes broke in various places in the unit causing cracking and leakage which remains today despite numerous requests to the Defendant to repair. See Exhibit "D' attached hereto.

17. Since inception, Plaintiff has been paying an electric bill that reflects service for the entire building and not its own space despite numerous requests to address the situation.

18. On or around January 28, 2022, a car accident occurred on Lake Street damaging the rollup garage door. Despite multiple requests to repair said garage door, Landlord refused to repair, thereby forcing Plaintiff to spend approximately $2,300 to repair even though this would not qualify as maintenance as defined in the Lease.

FILED DATE: 3/14/2023 6:05 PM 2022L010246

19. To add injury to insult, while Landlord's electricians were working on the space adjacent to the property in question, the electricians turned off power to garage door which continues to be inoperable despite numerous requests to fix the door.

20. Upon information and belief, there are multiple building code violations, some of which may result in the City condemning the building and disallowing any occupancy until said violations are remedied and/or repaired.

21. As a result of the above, Plaintiff is unable to use the leased space as contracted and Plaintiff's implied rights to quiet use and enjoyment have been severely curtailed.

22. Since the inception of the lease, the subject property contained several unsafe, unsanitary and uninhabitable conditions.

23. Throughout the tenancy, Plaintiff complained to Defendant on numerous occasions about these aforementioned unsafe, unsanitary and uninhabitable conditions.

24. Defendant refused to repair, fix or otherwise remediate the conditions.

25. On February 6, 2023, a two-alarm fire started in the Property causing extensive damages to not only the property but to Plaintiff's belongings.

26. While the cause of the fire was undetermined by the Chicago Fire Department, the building had no fire detectors nor an Automatic Extinguishment System. See Exhibit "E" attached hereto.

27. As a result, the property is uninhabitable.

28. On or about February 18, 2023, Defendant, without notice, locked the Plaintiffs out of the property, whereby Plaintiff has no access to retrieve any belongings that survived the fire.

COUNT I – BREACH OF CONTRACT

FILED DATE: 3/14/2023 6:05 PM 2022L010246

29. Plaintiff adopts and re-alleges paragraphs 1 through 28 of the facts common to all counts as fully set forth herein.

30. In order to plead a breach of contract, a plaintiff must allege: "(1) an offer; (2) the acceptance; (3) consideration (4) failure to perform by one of the party; (5) damages proximately caused by the breach."

31. In the case at bar, Plaintiff entered into a written lease agreement with Defendant to lease the industrial space at the Property.

32. Plaintiff tendered over $170,000 in security deposits and pre-paid rent in consideration of said Lease.

33. To date, Plaintiff has performed its obligations under the terms of the Lease.

34. To date, Defendant has been in violation of both Paragraph 9B and 29B of said Lease.

35. As such, Plaintiff is unable to use the leasable space as contracted and cannot safely remain in the space without significant repairs.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendant as follows:

A) An Order entering judgment for Plaintiff and against Defendant in the amount of $171,600.00 as and for compensatory damages;

B) An Order requiring Defendant pay Plaintiff punitive damages;

C) An Order requiring Defendant pay Plaintiff's costs;

D) An Order requiring Defendant pay Plaintiff's interests allowed by law;

E) An Order requiring Defendant pay Plaintiff's Attorney fees; and

F) For such other and further relief in premises as this Court deems just and proper.

FILED DATE: 3/14/2023 6:05 PM 2022L010246

COUNT II – BREACH OF IMPLIED COVENANT OF QUIET ENJOYMENT

36. Plaintiff adopts and re-alleges paragraph 1-28 of the facts common to all counts.

37. In order to plead a claim of breach of implied covenant of quiet enjoyment, a plaintiff must allege the tenant's implied right to use the rental for its intended purpose has been unreasonably disturbed by the landlord.

38. It is evident in the record that Defendant did not make the necessary repairs to the Property in order for Plaintiff to use its work space effectively or safely.

39. There was no heat, the lighting was never provided and the roof constantly leaked.

40. Restricting essential services such as lighting and heat are clear examples of a disruption of the covenant of quiet enjoyment.

41. These issues were and continue to be the responsibilities of Defendant and could have been remedied. Despite numerous requests and demands to fix the unsafe conditions, the Defendant chose to do nothing.

42. Thus, Plaintiff is unable to remain and work in the leased unit as the conditions therein are untenable for occupancy.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendant as follows:

A) An Order entering judgment for Plaintiff and against Defendant in compensatory damages in an amount to be proven at trial;

B) An Order requiring Defendant pay Plaintiff punitive damages

C) An Order requiring Defendant pay Plaintiff's Attorney fees and costs; and

FILED DATE: 3/14/2023 6:05 PM 2022L010246

D) For such other and further relief in premises as this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT III – FRAUD

43. Plaintiff adopts and re-alleges paragraph 1-28 of the facts common to all counts.

44. The elements of fraud are the following: A) A knowingly false representation by the Defendant; B) An intent to deceive or induce reliance; C) Justifiable reliance by the Plaintiff; and D) The plaintiff suffered damages as a result.

45. In the case at bar, Defendant represented it would maintain repair or replace the exterior of the property, including the roof.

46. Moreover, Defendant contracted to replace the lighting within the premises.

47. Defendant knew it was never going to make repairs or fix the issues within the unit.

48. His false statements, Defendant induced Plaintiff to deposit over $170,000.00 as prepayment and security deposits for the lease.

49. Plaintiff reasonably relied on the veracity of executed contract and the statements made by Defendant.

50. To date, no repairs have ever been made as it relates to the exterior and/or roof and no changes have ever been made with regard to the lighting within the leased space.

51. As a result of Plaintiff's reliance upon Defendant's statements and responsibilities within the executed lease, Plaintiff suffered damages, namely rent paid since inception and monies spent to improve the usability and habitability of the leased space.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendant as follows:

FILED DATE: 3/14/2023 6:05 PM 2022L010246

A) An Order entering judgment for Plaintiff and against Defendant for compensatory damages in an amount to be proven at trial;

B) An Order requiring Defendant pay Plaintiff punitive damages;

C) An Order requiring Defendant pay Plaintiff's Attorney fees and costs; and

D) For such other and further relief in premises as this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT IV – UNJUST ENRICHMENT

52. Plaintiff adopts and re-alleges paragraph 1-28 of the facts common to all counts.

53. To state a claim for unjust enrichment under Illinois law, a plaintiff must allege that the defendant has unjustly retained a benefit to the plaintiff's detriment, and that the defendant's retention of that benefit violates fundamental principles of justice, equity, and good conscience.

54. In the case at bar, Plaintiff paid Defendant over $170,000.00 in prepaid rent and security deposits for a commercial space that was otherwise unrentable and uninhabitable.

55. Plaintiff has endured a unit with inadequate lighting, limited or no heat, insufficient plumbing and a leaky roof.

56. These conditions have affected Plaintiff's ability to work and use the space as intended.

57. Defendant has unjustly retained a benefit to the Plaintiff's detriment in that it received over $170,000.00 without providing the benefit of a safe and habitable commercial space.

FILED DATE: 3/14/2023 6:05 PM 2022L010246

58. Defendant's retention of Plaintiff's funds violates the fundamental principles of justice, equity and good conscience.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendant as follows:

A) An Order entering judgment for Plaintiff and against Defendant for compensatory damages in an amount to be proven at trial;

B) An Order requiring Defendant pay Plaintiff punitive damages;

C) An Order requiring Defendant pay Plaintiff's Attorney fees and costs; and

D) For such other and further relief in premises as this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT V – CONSTRUCTIVE EVICTION

59. Plaintiff adopts and re-alleges paragraph 1-28 of the facts common to all counts.

60. To state a claim for constructive eviction under Illinois law, a plaintiff must allege that the defendant has rendered the premises useless to the person in possession of the premises, or when the person in possession is deprived in whole or in part of the use and enjoyment of the premises as a result of another's wrongful acts.

61. In the case at bar, Plaintiff complained repeatedly about the dangerous and unsafe conditions within the space.

62. Those complaints were ignored.

63. While the CFD's report was inconclusive, it did show that there were no fire alarms or a sprinkler system in the space, which is nothing short of negligent.

64. As a result, a fire broke out and the property cannot be utilized until extensive repairs are made.

FILED DATE: 3/14/2023 6:05 PM 2022L010246

65. At no time did Defendant attempt to make any necessary protective measures to ensure the safety of the premises and because of the fire, the space is no longer usable.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendant as follows:

A) An Order entering judgment for Plaintiff and against Defendant for compensatory damages in an amount to be proven at trial;

B) An Order requiring Defendant pay Plaintiff punitive damages;

C) An Order requiring Defendant pay Plaintiff's Attorney fees and costs; and

D) For such other and further relief in premises as this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT VI – WRONGFUL EVICTION

66. Plaintiff adopts and re-alleges paragraph 1-28 of the facts common to all counts.

67. To state a claim for wrongful eviction under Illinois law, a plaintiff must allege that the defendant has wrongful terminated its tenancy without following the necessary procedures outlined under 735 ILCS 5/9-101, et. seq.

68. In the case at bar, Plaintiff was locked out of the unit without notice.

69. In any eviction matter, commercial or otherwise, notice is required by statute.

70. The Defendant simply removed the door-knobs from the building, effectively denying the Plaintiff's access to the property.

71. Defendant has an obligation and a duty to give proper notice and cannot use "self-help" measures to effectuate an eviction.

72. Plaintiff paid Defendant over $170,000.00 in prepaid rent and security deposits for a commercial space and Defendant has no cause to deny access without court order and/or an eviction by the Cook County Sheriff.

FILED DATE: 3/14/2023 6:05 PM 2022L010246

73. Defendant's actions constitute a wrongful eviction under the statute.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendant as follows:

A) An Order entering judgment for Plaintiff and against Defendant for compensatory damages in an amount to be proven at trial;

B) An Order requiring Defendant pay Plaintiff punitive damages;

C) An Order requiring Defendant pay Plaintiff's Attorney fees and costs; and

D) For such other and further relief in premises as this Court deems just and proper.

COMMERCIAL LEASE
4714A West Lake Street

This Lease Agreement (this "Lease") is dated as of September 17th, 2021, by and between GP Opportunity Fund LLC ("Landlord"), and Brad Behmer ("Tenant") with Kenneth Mayle as a personal guarantor ("Guarantor"). The parties agree as follows:

1. PREMISES. Landlord, in consideration of the lease payments provided in this Lease, leases to Tenant 13,000 sqft industrial unit at 4714A W Lake St (the southern half of PIN 16-10-301-011) in Chicago, IL 60644 (the "Premises").

2. USE OF PREMISES. Tenant agrees that it shall use the Premises for business offices, storage of materials and equipment, and manufacturing of home decor and other artistic objects. Tenant represents and warrants that the foregoing use of the Premises is allowed by all applicable laws, codes and ordinances.

3. TERM. The lease term will begin on October 1st, 2021 and will terminate on September 31st, 2026.

4. LEASE PAYMENTS. Tenant shall pay Landlord lease payments of $7,150.00, payable in advance, on the first of each month. Lease payments shall be made to the Landlord at 1667 N Bissell St 3, Chicago, Illinois 60614.

> A. PAYMENT OF MONTHLY RENT. During the term of this Lease and any extension therefor, Tenant agrees to pay Landlord on or before the 1st of each full calendar month during the term hereof. Rent for any period during the term which is less than one full month shall be a prorated portion of the monthly rent based on the total number of days in the month being prorated. Said rent shall be paid to the Landlord, without deduction or offset (except as otherwise provided herein or at law or in equity) and without notice or demand at the Landlord's address or to such person or at such address. The monthly rent shall commence on the commencement date of the term.
> B. LATE FEES. Tenant recognizes that the late payment of monthly rent will result in administrative expense to Landlord, the extent of which additional expense is difficult and economically impractical to ascertain. Tenant therefore agrees that if the monthly rent has not been paid by the 5th day of the month, such unpaid amount shall be increased by a late charge in the amount of $100.

5. POSSESSION. Tenant shall be entitled to possession on the first day of the term of this Lease, and shall yield possession to the Landlord on the last day of the term of this Lease, unless otherwise agreed by both parties in writing. At the expiration of the term, Tenant shall remove its goods and effects and peaceably yield up the Premises to the Landlord in as good a condition as when delivered to Tenant, ordinary wear and tear excepted.

6. INSURANCE. During the term of the lease and extension thereof, Tenant agrees to maintain at its own expense liability and property insurance.
